To announce the Division of Academics, Department of Social Sciences 2018 Online Gubernatorial and Senatorial Student Mock Election.

- The Division of Academics, Department of Social Sciences, in collaboration with the Florida Joint Center for Citizenship, is holding a K-12 online Student Mock Election for the upcoming 2018 Florida Gubernatorial and Senatorial election.
- As productive citizens, it is important that students become familiar with and participate in the voting process. Partaking in voting and practicing active citizenship are significant and important experiences for students to have to maintain a vital and vibrant society and encourage responsible citizenship.
- It is highly encouraged that all M-DCPS' students participate, as the initiative's goal is to have one million students state-wide vote in the mock election.
- Details for M-DCPS' Student Online Mock Election is as follows:
 - All schools are highly encouraged to participate;
 - See the attached documents for details on how to participate and access the online ballot.
 - Schools must first find their school code found in the attached Excel file. This code must be given to the students and used as the students' voter identification number. See the attached directions for further information.
 - M-DCPS' Student Online Mock Election will be open for voting and available, Monday, October 29 – Monday, November 5, 2018 before 4:30 P.M.
 - Results will be available on November 6, 2018 at 4:31 P.M.
 - Social Studies department chairpersons/leaders/teachers are encouraged to arrange a schedule for student participation in the student mock election at their schools.
