To encourage activities that support literacy during Hispanic Heritage Month through the Hispanic Heritage Read-In.

- The Department of Social Sciences encourages all schools to establish academic enriching experiences that support literacy for teachers and students during Hispanic Heritage Month through the Hispanic Heritage Read-In.
 - The Hispanic Heritage Read-In, modeled after the National African American Read-In, should be scheduled for each Tuesday during Hispanic Heritage month from September 13-October 11, 2016.
 - The dates are as follows:
 - Tuesday, September 13, 2016;
 - Tuesday, September 20, 2016;
 - Tuesday, September 27, 2016;
 - Tuesday, October 4, 2016; and
 - Tuesday, October 11, 2016.
 - On the aforementioned days, schools are urged to make literacy a significant part of Hispanic Heritage Month by hosting and coordinating Read-Ins.
 - To be counted as participants, simply select books, poems, speeches (anything) authored by Hispanic-Americans and Hispanics and report your results on the Host Report card at:
 - <http://socialsciences.dadeschools.net/forms/hispanic-heritage-read-in-chain-form.asp>.
 - Reading selections can be in Spanish or English.
 - The Host Report Cards are used to compute the number of participants and produce a report card for this literacy effort. With the submission of Host Report Cards, names are added to the data base, giving tangible evidence of a school's role in making literacy a significant part of Hispanic Heritage Month. To be an official participant, you must submit a Host Report Card.
 - Complete the Hispanic Heritage Read-In Chain Host Report Card on or before Thursday, October 13, 2016.
