To announce training dates for 6th grade World History new instructional materials

---

- The Division of Social Sciences and Life Skills is offering one-day training sessions for 6th grade World History teachers in order for them to learn about new instructional materials that will be used for the 2012-2013 school year.
  - The training dates and locations are as follows:
    - August 1, 2, or 3: Hialeah Gardens Middle School; or
    - August 1, 2, or 3: Miami Lakes Educational Center.
  - To register for one of these sessions, please log onto the PD Menu and Registration System and find the course by searching for instructor, "Brazofsky," and click on the date and location desired.
  - The course is titled: "Social Studies New Instructional Materials: World History Grade 6."
  - Each session begins at 8:00 a.m. and ends at 3:30 p.m.
  - Participants can earn 7 Master Plan Points.
  - Participants are to report to the media center at the location on the date selected.
  - Participants MUST be scheduled to teach at least one section of 6th grade World History for the 2012-2013 school year.
