

ALL PRINCIPALS/AP's/TEACHERS: ABOTA Teachers' Law School with District and Circuit Judges

Category: For Your Information

Audience: All Principals/APs, All Teachers

Due Date: n/a

Meeting Date: n/a

The ABOTA (American Board of Trial Advocates) and M-DCPS' Department of Social Sciences will host a Teachers' Law School with local District and Circuit Judges.

- The ABOTA Foundation and the Department of Social Sciences is proud to present the ABOTA Teachers' Law School.
 - The mission of the American Board of Trial Advocates is to preserve the constitutional vision of equal justice for all Americans and preserve the civil justice system for future generations.
 - The ABOTA Teachers' Law School is designed for the K-12 social studies teacher that seeks to strengthen their civics and history content knowledge. Additionally, this workshop will also assist teachers in preparation for District Social Sciences competitions.
 - Teachers will have the unique opportunity to work with “master” trial lawyers, judges, legislators, executive branch members, and scholars from the state and federal government. Participants will be exposed to presentations and round table discussions on topics aimed at giving teachers the tools to help their students better understand and appreciate the value of the American civil and criminal legal systems and the role those systems play in students' lives and society.
 - Logistics of the workshop follow:
 - Date - Friday, December 2, 2016
 - Time - 8:30 am to 3:30 pm.
 - Location - Miami-Dade College, Science Complex
11380 N.W. 27th Ave. Miami, FL 33167
 - Continental breakfast and lunch will be provided.
 - Teachers will receive 7 MPP points.
 - Sub-coverage is not provided.
 - To sign up to attend this workshop, teachers are instructed to register through MyLearningPlan. See course title below:
