The Division of Academics, Department of Social Sciences announces the Rosewood descendant African American History (AAH) Advocate and teacher workshop in partnership with the Lyric Theatre.

- The Division of Academics, Department of Social Sciences and the historic Lyric Theatre Studies Department will conduct a K-12 classroom applications workshop with key note speaker, Lizzie Jenkins, as she shares the following:
    - “The Real Rosewood is a historical account of my family's involvement in this 1923 Rosewood, Florida massacre that left people dead, dying and escaping to freedom. My Aunt Mahulda Gussie Brown Carrier was the schoolteacher there from 1915 to 1923. She escaped and I'm telling her story. “Clothing culture in East Africa: Wearing what cannot be spoken Applications for the K-12 Classrooms.”
  - 7 MPP credits will only be awarded upon full completion of the course and requirements of the professional development criteria.
  - Teachers interested in registering for the workshop must do so through MyLearningPlan and search for the session title: AAH Advocate Workshop: Best Practices for the K-12 Classroom.
