To provide schools with instructional resources in support of April- National Financial Literacy Month and information about related essay contests.

- The Division of Academics, Department of Social Sciences supports financial literacy instruction year-round and is providing schools with this reminder that during the month of April, financial literacy education is celebrated and given special emphasis.
  - To support instruction on financial literacy, the Department of Social Sciences has 15 lessons per grade level on various topics of importance related to financial literacy (e.g., the importance of saving, understanding credit, planning for your future, and investing). These lessons can be found on the Department's website, <http://socialsciences.dadeschools.net>. Click on the Financial Literacy icon found on the home page.
  - See attached flyer titled "FL Flyer" for additional information about Financial Literacy.
  - In addition, please see the attached flyer titled "Financial Literacy Essay Contest Flyer 2018" highlighting essay contests being held during Financial Literacy Month. All pertinent information can be found on the flyer accordingly.
  - Should you have questions or need additional information, please contact Mr. Robert C. Brazofsky, Executive Director, Division of Academics, Department of Social Sciences, rbrazofsky@dadeschools.net, or see the contact information below.
