Florida International University's Asian Studies Program is offering a one-week summer institute from June 13-18, 2011 for interested teachers.

- The Asian Studies Program at Florida International University, in conjunction with the Division of Social Sciences and Life Skills, is offering a one-week summer institute for interested teachers.
 - Please see below for important dates and program information:
 - The purpose of the institute is to encourage the teaching and learning about Asia.
 - The dates of the institute are as follows:
 - In-person meetings: June 13, 14, 15, 16, and 18.
 - Hours of in-person meetings: 9:30 a.m.- 2:30 p.m. (with 30 minute lunch break- lunch not included).
 - At home preparation meetings: June 12 and 17.
 - Topics include: East Asian history, religion, international and political affairs, geography, literature, culture, and more.
 - Participants will receive the following:
 - Instruction by experts in the field of Asian studies;
 - 27 Master Plan Points;
 - An honorarium of up to $100 upon completion (paid for by the Asian Studies Program); and
 - Instructional resources.
 - Interested teachers should complete the attached application and send it via FAX to (305) 348-6586 on or before May 24, 2011.
 - Teachers must first apply to be accepted to the Asian Studies program and then sign up to receive Master Plan Points once accepted into the program.
 - If accepted in the program, teachers may sign up for Master Plan Points by finding the course titled: "Asian Studies Summer Institute" on the Professional Development Menu and Registration system.
 - Please see the attached flyer and application form for additional information.
 - If you need additional information or have questions, please email asian@fiu.edu.
