The Division of Social Sciences Mock Trial Competition is a senior high school law studies program. Students prepare and argue a civil or criminal court case during the District competition on February 14 and 15, 2013.

- The Mock Trial District Competition will take place on February 14 and 15, 2012 at the Miami Conference Center, 400 SE 2nd Avenue, Miami, Florida.
 - Team members must be students enrolled in an elective law class during the 2012-2013 school year.
 - Each school has the option of fielding a team which may include two members who are not currently enrolled in an elective law class this year; however, these two students must have been enrolled in an elective law class the previous year and must still be enrolled in a Miami-Dade County Public Schools.
 - Senior High Schools may only register one team for the competition.
 - A copy of the 2012-2013 case materials with the District competition rules and guidelines are provided as an attachment to this weekly briefing.
 - For helpful hints about preparing a team for the mock trial competition, please go to the Florida Law Related Education Association's website, www.flrea.org, click on programs and then mock trial.
 - Please complete the attached participation form and return it to Mr. Robert C. Brazofsky via FAX 305 995-1492. All responses must be received on or before Friday, November 9, 2012. The completed form may also be emailed to rbrazofsky@dadeschools.net.
