On November 2, 2010, the citizens of Florida will participate in the Gubernatorial and U.S. Senate election. Attached to this briefing are instructional activities and resources to support K-12 instruction during these elections.

- The Division of Social Sciences and Life Skills has developed the attached resource guides (elementary and secondary) to support instruction regarding the upcoming 2010 Florida Gubernatorial and U.S. Senate election. These resources and activities are intended to assist teachers with their instruction about the candidates and the issues.
 - Some of the activities in the instructional packet include:
 - Biographic Information about each major candidate;
 - Classroom mock election; and
 - Internet Resources.
 - To download and print a copy of the instructional resource packet(s) please click on the link(s) listed below.
