To announce the 1st Financial Literacy Scholarship Competition open to Miami-Dade County Public Schools (M-DCPS) Juniors and Seniors.

• CONTEST DESCRIPTION

- M-DCPS' Department of Social Sciences and Steckler Wealth Management Group of Raymond James is proud to sponsor the 2017 Financial Literacy Scholarship Contests. This contest provides students with the opportunity to demonstrate their understanding and emphasize the importance of responsible money management and financial literacy.
- M-DCPS' 11th and 12th grade students are encouraged to research important issues related to financial literacy and create a Public Service Announcement (PSA) video about the financial literacy topic of their choosing with the intent of informing the public of the importance of money management and being financially literate.
- See attached flyer for additional information and scholarship award amounts.

• TOPICS FOR CONSIDERATION:

- See attached flyer

• ELIGIBILITY

- Senior High school juniors and seniors (grades 11 and 12) in M-DCPS.

• SUBMISSION

- Each school must evaluate their students' video submissions (PSA) and select their top two school site winners.
- The school must then submit the winning students' videos to the District competition by March 10, 2017.
- All school-site winning PSAs must be submitted to the Department of Social Sciences by uploading the link to the following site: <http://socialsciences.dadeschools.net/forms/financial-literacy-scholarship-contest-form.asp>. All information requested must be completed in its entirety in order for the PSA to be accepted into the District competition.
- See the attached rubric which will be used to evaluate the PSA submissions as well as the attached infographic about the importance of financial literacy.

• ANNOUNCING WINNERS

- Scholarship winners will be recognized during a ceremony in April (date TBD) during Financial Literacy Month.

• QUESTIONS? NEED ADDITIONAL INFORMATION?
