The Division of Social Sciences and Life Skills, in cooperation with the Muriel F. Siebert Foundation, is sponsoring a one-day financial literacy workshop for 7th grade Civics and 12th grade Economics teachers.

- To become financially literate, students need to understand the functions of financial institutions, the problems related to debt and credit, and the investment options open to them as adults.
  - To assist Civics and Economics teachers in their efforts to teach financial literacy through their required curriculum, a one-day workshop is being sponsored by the Division of Social Sciences and Life Skills, in cooperation with the Muriel F. Siebert Foundation.
  - The workshop will be held on Saturday, November 21, 2009 from 9:00 a.m. – 4:00 p.m. at the Historical Museum of Southern Florida, 101 West Flagler Street, Miami, Florida, 33130, Phone: 305-995-1492.
  - Teachers participating in the workshop will receive free teaching materials, a $100 stipend, and 8 MPP pending completion of a homework assignment following the workshop.
  - Parking is available at a flat rate of $5.00 in the municipal garage immediately west of the Museum. The Museum is also accessible from the Metrorail.
  - Registration will take place on-line through the M-DCPS Professional Development Menu and Registration System. Click on “Find a Session by Instructor.” The Financial Literacy workshop instructor is listed as Alayne Zeto.
  - Registration is limited to 25 middle and 25 senior high school teachers with preference given to 7th grade Civics and 12th grade Economics teachers.
  - If you have any additional questions, please contact the Division of Social Sciences and Life Skills, at the number listed below.
