ALL PRINCIPALS/APS/TEACHERS: Social Sciences- Florida Jewish History Month January 2020

Category: For Your Information

Audience: All Principals/APs, All Teachers

Due Date: n/a
Meeting Date: n/a

To provide teaching resources to support instruction during Florida Jewish History Month which is commemorated each January.

- The Division of Academics, Department of Social Sciences provides all schools with a teacher/student study guide for use during the month of January 2020 in support of Florida Jewish History Month.
- Florida Jewish History Month is an appropriate time for educators to focus attention on the tremendous contributions Florida Jews have made in every area of the development of our state.
- The guide includes information on the cultural contribution in the arts of the Florida Jewish community through student-oriented research and classroom activities specifically for use during Florida Jewish History Month, January 2020.
- These resources are posted under the District’s “Curriculum Resources” tile through the portal. Once you have logged in, see the tab titled: “Special Commemorative Resources” and find the file titled “Florida Jewish History Month.”
- In addition to the traditional instructional resources published each January for Florida Jewish History Month, teachers may also find a “For Review Only” (not for sale) copy of author Marcia Jo Zerivitz’s recently published work titled: Jews of Florida, Centuries of Stories, with an accompanying study guide written by a group of M-DCPS teachers in collaboration with the author.
- If you have any questions or need additional information, please contact the Department of Social Sciences, Mr. Robert Brazofsky, Executive Director, rbrazofsky@dadeschools.net, or Dr. Miriam Klein Kassenoff, Curriculum Support Specialist, mkassenoff@dadeschools.net, at the number listed below.
