To announce Geography Bee and History Bee Teacher Training.

- Each Spring, the Department of Social Sciences offers enrichment opportunities for students to excel in content knowledge during the Geography and/or History Bee competitions.
- The Department of Social Sciences is offering a professional development opportunity to interested teachers who would like to learn best practices in terms of preparing a group of students to participate in the upcoming Geography and/or History Bee competitions.
- The workshop is open to both elementary and secondary teachers.
- It is the expectation that if you attend the workshop, you will prepare a team and enter in the Spring 2016 Geography and/or History Bee Competition. Specific dates of competitions and registration information will be shared at the training.
- During this workshop, teachers will gain insight on how to effectively establish a Geography and/or History Bee team in order to participate in the Spring 2016 Geography and/or History Bee competitions for elementary and secondary students as well as learn about the importance of providing enrichment opportunities for students.
- Workshop and registration details are as follows:
