To inform Title I senior high school administrators of the REVISED information regarding transportation for the Title I schools that are accepted to the Hamilton Educational Program and partaking of the musical “Hamilton” on March 13, 2020.

- The Division of Academics, the Department of Secondary English Language Arts, and the Department of Social Sciences, in cooperation with The Gilder Lehrman Institute of American History’s Hamilton Education Program (HEP), are pleased to announce an educational opportunity for Title I senior high schools to bring a group of students to see the musical “Hamilton” during a matinee performance at the Adrienne Arsht Center for the Performing Arts on March 13, 2020.

- Please note the following requirements:
  - Senior high schools must have Title I status to apply to be accepted into the Hamilton Education Program (HEP).
  - All participating students must be enrolled in a senior high school United States History course for the 2019-2020 school year.
  - Selected schools are to implement a 3 to 5-day project for all students attending.
  - Although students must be enrolled in senior high school U.S. History, it is HIGHLY recommended that the student project be implemented in 11th grade Language Arts classes with assistance from the U.S. History teacher.
  - HEP is an all-day event on March 13, 2020 and students will not return to school at regular dismissal time.
  - Each ticket price is $10.00 due to HEP’s fundraising efforts.
  - Transportation costs will be provided by the Cultural Passport Program.
  - Schools must bring their own lunches for the students.
  - To apply to be accepted in HEP and to learn about the requirements to participate, click HERE. Pay attention to the following sections of the website: “How to Participate in the Hamilton Education Program” and “Frequently Asked Questions.”
  - Please apply to be accepted on or before Friday, September 20, 2019.
  - See attached flyer for further information.

- Direct all inquiries to: Hamilton@gilderlehrman.org.
