To announce a professional development opportunity for Hispanic Heritage Education Advocates or other interested teachers on: "The U.S. and Cuba: A Close Look."

- The Department of Social Sciences, in cooperation with FIU's Latin American and Caribbean Center, is offering a one-day professional development opportunity for Hispanic Heritage Education Advocates or other interested teachers titled: "The U.S. and Cuba after D17: A Closer Look." D17 refers to the date, December 17, 2014, when President Barack Obama announced the plan to re-establish diplomatic relations with Cuba.
- Details of the workshop are as follows:
 - Date: Wednesday, September 23, 2015.
 - Location: FIU's Modesto Maidique Campus (Main South Campus), MARC Building, International Pavilion.
 - Times: 8:30 a.m. to 3:30 p.m.
 - Substitute Funding: is not necessary as September 23, 2015 is a teacher work day.
 - Parking information will be emailed directly to registered participants.
 - MPP: 7 Master Plan Points will be awarded to participants who attend and successfully complete follow up requirements.
- To Register: Please access MyLearningPlan through the Employee Portal and search for the course titled: "Social Sciences- Hispanic Heritage Advocates: The U.S and Cuba- A Closer Look."
- Please see the attached DRAFT agenda of the workshop for additional details.
- If you have questions or need additional information, please contact Robert C. Brazofsky, Executive Director, Department of Social Sciences, rbrazofsky@dadeschools.net or see the contact information below.
