To provide schools with instructional resources supporting the celebration of Hispanic Heritage Month, September 15 to October 15, 2014.

- Hispanic Heritage Month gives our diverse community the opportunity to recognize and celebrate the many historic, cultural, social, and economic contributions of Hispanics to the United States.
- Additionally, in Florida, State Statute 1003.42 requires the study of “the contributions of Hispanic to United States history.”
- The purpose of the “Hispanic Heritage Month” resource guide is to provide schools with background information, lesson plans, and a list of appropriate Internet resources to support instruction during Hispanic Heritage Month, September 15 – October 15, 2014, and throughout the school year.
- Below please find the links to the elementary and secondary instructional resources compiled by the Department of Social Sciences to support Hispanic Heritage Month. Please feel free to download and duplicate as necessary.
