The Division of Social Sciences and Life Skills is forwarding the attached resources to assist elementary and secondary teachers in providing instruction during Hispanic Heritage Month.

- Hispanic Heritage Month is celebrated nationally each year from September 15 - October 15. The 2009 Hispanic Heritage Month theme is "Heritage, Diversity, Integrity, and Honor: The Renewed Hope of America."
 - Florida Statute 1003.42 and the District's Student Progression Plan both require instruction on the contributions of Hispanics to the United States, grades K-12.
 - The Division of Social Sciences and Life Skills developed the attached resources to assist elementary and secondary teachers in providing instruction during Hispanic Heritage Month and throughout the school year.
 - Please share this guide with the teachers in your school. Please also free to duplicate copies of the resource, as needed.
