To announce the Holocaust Documentation and Education Center's Student Awareness Day: February 15, 2017 and related competitions.

The Department of Social Sciences is pleased to endorse and provide information on the Holocaust Documentation and Education Center's Student Awareness Day. Student Awareness Day is a program designed to reduce prejudice among 9th-12th grade students.

Please see below for specific program description, program location, times, and next steps in registering students to attend:

- Student Awareness Day prejudice reduction program for 9th - 12th grade students will consist of lectures given by prominent educators, Holocaust Survivors, and historians on the history of the Holocaust, its ramifications and implications for today.
- Survivors of the Holocaust will share their personal testimony with the students who will be seated at round tables with them throughout the day.
- The objective of the program is to create a greater understanding and respect for one another regardless of race, religion, or creed.
- Schools are invited to designate 25 students to participate in this Student Awareness Day program. PLEASE SELECT THOSE WHO HAVE NOT AS YET ATTENDED A PREVIOUS STUDENT AWARENESS DAY. You may list alternates. The Holocaust Documentation Center will contact you if they have room for extra students.

- Program Specifics are as follows:

PLACE: Kovens Conference Center
Florida International University
3000 Northeast 151st Street
North Miami, FL 33181

DATE: Wednesday, February 15, 2017

TIME: 8:30 A.M. - 1:30 P.M.

LUNCH: Lunch will be served.

- Transportation and substitute teachers are the responsibility of the school for this event.
- On the attached Excel spreadsheet, please list the school name, teacher contact name, contact phone numbers, email address, all student names (first and last), alternates, and any chaperones (indicate if they are teachers, administrators, etc).
- Please email the registration information to Stephanie Cohen at education@hdec.org.
- Deadline for school registration is January 26, 2017.

- If you have questions or need further information, contact either Stephanie Cohen at 954-929-5690, education@hdec.org or Rositta Kenigsberg, Rositta@hdec.org from the Holocaust Documentation and Education Center.
- Attached to this briefing is a memorandum to Senior High School Principals from the Honorable Rosita E. Kenigsberg, President of the Holocaust Documentation and Education Center regarding Student Awareness Days.
- Also attached to this is the Excel sheet to be submitted with student names along with a flyer and required photo release form (page two of the flyer).
- Please direct all questions and further inquiry to Stephanie Cohen, education@hdec.org, 954-929-5690 extension 209.
