To announce the Public Inauguration Ceremony for the 45th President, Donald Trump and the 48th Vice President, Mike Pence that will occur on Friday, January 20, 2017 and provide instructional resources associated with this historic event.

---

- Mandated by the U.S. Constitution, Presidents begin their new term on January 20th at noon.
  - The 2017 Inaugural Theme is “Make America Great Again” as endorsed by President-elect Donald Trump’s transition team. (Please note: at the time of publishing this briefing Donald Trump has not yet taken the oath of office therefore the title “President-Elect” was used instead of “President.”)
  - The Department of Social Sciences has developed the attached instructional resource guide with information and student activities to assist teachers with their instruction regarding the 2017 Presidential Inauguration.
  - The instructional resource guide is also available on the Department of Social Sciences’ website: <http://socialsciences.dadeschools.net>.
