To provide schools with instructional resources to support the commemoration of National Caribbean-American Heritage Month, June 2016.

- National Caribbean Heritage Month is celebrated each June. This occasion gives our diverse community the opportunity to recognize and celebrate the significance of Caribbean people and their descendants to the history of our community and nation.
 - The Department of Social Sciences has developed an instructional resource guide to provide schools with background information, suggested classroom activities, and a list of appropriate Internet resources to support National Caribbean-American Heritage Month.
 - Given that there are very few instructional days in June, teachers are encouraged to incorporate lessons during the latter half of May, as well.
 - Attached is the instructional resource guide. Please feel free to download and duplicate as necessary.
 - For additional information about National Caribbean-American Heritage Month, please contact Mr. Robert Brazofsky, Executive Director, Department of Social Sciences, at the number listed below, or by email at rbrazofsky@dadeschools.net.
