The Miami-Dade Council for the Social Studies is hosting a workshop on March 1, 2010. See below for important details.

- The Miami-Dade Council for the Social Studies is hosting a workshop on March 1, 2010 at Mater Academy Charter School, 7901 NW 103 St., Hialeah Gardens, Florida 33016 from 8:30 a.m. - 3:30 p.m. Participants should report to the cafeteria in the morning.
 - This is a professional development day; therefore, no substitute coverage is needed. However, all participants must have the approval of their principal to attend.
 - The workshop is open to all social studies teachers and is free for members of the Miami-Dade Council for the Social Studies. Non-members can attend and pay a fee of $15.00, thus becoming a member, by completing the attached form and sending it to the individual indicated. All membership forms and fees must be received by February 19, 2010 or individuals must pay at the door on the day of the workshop.
 - Teachers MUST register on the Professional Development Menu and Registration System in order to attend AND receive Master Plan Points. Any teacher who does not register on the Professional Development Registration Menu will not be eligible to earn Master Plan Points.
 - Participants of the workshop will receive valuable pedagogical and content information regarding teaching social studies and 8 Master Plan Points.
 - To register for this professional development opportunity, log on to the Professional Development Menu and Registration System and search for the course "By Instructor;" "Brazofsky;" and find the course titled: "Miami-Dade Council Workshop;" and complete the registration steps indicated on the website.
 - Should you require additional information or have questions or concerns, please contact Mr. John Burkowski via e-mail, burkj@dadeschools.net, president of the Miami-Dade Council for the Social Studies.
