The Division of Social Sciences and Life Skills is offering a workshop to train teachers on how to prepare students for a Model United Nations Conference. This training is being conducted by Global Classrooms, a national leader in MUN Conferences.

- The Division of Social Sciences and Life Skills, in cooperation with Global Classrooms, an affiliate of the United Nations Association of the United States of America, is offering training for senior high and middle school social studies teachers interested in preparing students for and participating in a local Model United Nations Conference.
- The training dates are as follows: Saturday, October 24, 2009, Saturday, January 23, 2010, and Saturday, March 6, 2010. All trainings will be held in room 559 of the School Board Administration Building located at 1450 NE 2nd Avenue from 9:00 a.m. - 3:00 p.m.
- Teachers who register to participate in the trainings will receive Master Plan Points and free and valuable instructional materials to assist them in preparing students for the MUN experience. Once registered, additional information regarding signing up for MPP will be forwarded accordingly.
- It is expected that teachers who participate in the trainings will prepare a group of students to participate in this year's Model United Nations Conference (see details below for the dates of the MUN Conference).
- To register for the Model United Nations Training, please complete and send via FAX the attached registration form. All pertinent and required information can be found on the attached form.
- The Model United Nations Conference for students of participating teachers will be held on April 17, 2010 (date is tentative and location TBA).
- For teachers who have participated in the District's Model United Nations Conference training and program in the past and who would like to bring a team to this year's conference but NOT participate in this year's training, please fill out the attached registration form as well.
- Global Classrooms is dedicated to expanding the number of schools that participate in Model United Nations conferences and in providing opportunities for urban public schools to participate in the Model United Nations experience through in-class and district-wide simulations of United Nations' bodies.
- The Model United Nations program aims to improve the social and professional skills of students and increase their exposure and understanding of global issues and the economy.
- If you have any questions or need additional information, please see the contact information below or e-mail rbrazofsky@dadeschool.net.
