The Division of Social Sciences and Life Skills is offering a workshop to train teachers on how to prepare students for a Model United Nations (MUN) Conference. This training is being conducted in conjunction with Global Classrooms, a leader in MUN.

- The Division of Social Sciences and Life Skills, in cooperation with Global Classrooms, an affiliate of the United Nations Association of the United States of America, is offering training for senior high and middle school social studies teachers interested in preparing students for participating in a local Model United Nations Conference.
 - The training dates and locations are as follows:
 - Initial Training: Friday, September 30, 2011, SBAB Room 559 9:00 a.m.- 3:00 p.m. (Substitute coverage will be provided.)
 - The remaining trainings will be held on Saturdays on the following dates (location-TBA): October 1, December 10, 2011 and January 28, 2012.
 - To register, please complete the attached registration form AND log on to the PD Menu and Registration System, look for the course by instructor, "Brazofsky," and click on the title, "Model United Nations Conference Training."
 - To earn the MPP's associated with this training, participants must attend EVERY training session.
 - It is expected that teachers who participate in the trainings will prepare a group of students to participate in this year's Model United Nations Conference which will be held on Saturday, February 18, 2012 at Miami Dade College's North Campus.
 - For teachers who have participated in the District's Model United Nations Conference training and program in the past and who would like to bring a team to this year's conference but NOT participate in this year's training, please also fill out the attached registration form and send it in by September 26, 2011.
