The Division of Social Sciences is offering a workshop to train teachers on how to prepare students for a Model United Nations (MUN) Conference. This training is being conducted in conjunction with Global Classrooms, a leader in MUN.

- The Division of Social Sciences, in cooperation with Global Classrooms, an affiliate of the United Nations Association of the United States of America, is offering training for senior high and middle school social studies teachers interested in preparing students for participating in a local Model United Nations Conference.
- The training dates are as follows:
 - Saturday, October 6, 2012; Saturday, November 17, 2012; Saturday, December 15, 2012; Saturday, January 26, 2013.
 - All trainings will be held at Mater Academy Senior High School, 7901 NW 103rd Street, Hialeah Gardens, Florida 33016. Trainings will begin at 8:30 a.m. and conclude at 3:30 p.m.
 - To register, please log on to the PD Menu and Registration System, look for the course by instructor, "Brazofsky," and click on the title, "Model United Nations Conference Training."
 - To earn the MPP's associated with this training, participants must attend EVERY training session.
 - Training stipends will not be paid.
- It is expected that teachers who participate in the trainings will prepare a group of students to participate in this year's Model United Nations Conference which will be held on Saturday, February 23, 2013 at Miami Dade College's North Campus.
- For teachers who have participated in the District's Model United Nations Conference training and program in the past and who would like to bring a team to this year's conference but NOT participate in this year's training, please send an email to rbrazofsky@dadeschools.net expressing your interest in attending this year's conference. Please do so on or before October 1, 2012.
