November is Native American History Month. The Department of Social Sciences has developed resources to assist teachers as they provide instruction on the contributions of Native Americans.

- The Department of Social Sciences has developed a teacher resource guide to assist teachers in providing instruction on the contributions of American Indians and Alaska Natives to the growth and development of the Americas and the United States.
 - Elementary and secondary lesson plans with readings, support materials, and website resources are provided in the guide. Please click on the link below to view and download this information: http://socialsciences.dadeschools.net/files/Native_American_2013_Instructional_Resource_Packet.pdf
 - Also attached is a PowerPoint presentation that may be utilized to celebrate Native American Heritage Month. The PowerPoint may be used school-wide during opening exercises or in individual classrooms. Please share the attached resources with the teachers in your schools. This information is also available on the Department of Social Sciences' website: <http://socialsciences.dadeschools.net>.
 - Should you have questions about these resources or need additional information, please contact Mr. Robert C. Brazofsky, Executive Director, Department of Social Sciences, rbrazofsky@dadeschools.net, or see the contact information below.
