To announce a professional development opportunity emphasizing learning resources available on the National Archives' website for Secondary Social Science teachers.

---

- The Department of Social Sciences is offering a one-day training emphasizing the learning resources available on the National Archives' website for Secondary Social Science teachers .
- National Archives' Learning Resources are rich with primary source documents that encourage in-depth and rigorous learning of Social Sciences content.
- The training will be conducted by Dr. Charles Flanagan, Outreach Supervisor, Center for Legislative Archives Division from the National Archives.
- Details of the training are as follows:
  - Date: Tuesday, May 17, 2016
  - Location: Federal Reserve Bank of Atlanta, Miami Branch, 9100 N.W. 36th Street, Miami, Florida 33178.
  - Times: 8:30 a.m. to 3:30 p.m.
  - MPP: 7 Master Plan Points will be awarded to participants who attend and successfully complete all professional development requirements.
  - Lunch: Provided free of charge by the Federal Reserve Bank, Miami Branch.
  - Registration: Search for the course in MyLearningPlan titled: Social Sciences- Middle School and High School Best Practices Using National Archives.
  - Substitutes: Substitute funding structure will be emailed to registered participants.
- Please note: Participation is limited to one Social Science teacher per school. It is the expectation that participating teachers will share information learned at the workshop with teachers back at their school sites.
