To provide K-12 schools with the Just Read, Florida! office's recommended book list highlighting the rich history of African-Americans.

- In celebration of Black History Month, the Department of Education's Just Read, Florida! Office has released a recommended reading list showcasing a broad selection of African-American authors and their literary creations.
 - Students and families across the state are encouraged to explore the selections during Black History Month and throughout the year.
 - The attached reading list is for K-12 students.
 - If you need additional information or assistance, please contact Dr. Sherrilyn Scott, District Supervisor, Division of Social Sciences and Life Skills, at the number listed below, or by email at sherrilynscott@dadeschools.net.
