The Division of Social Sciences and Life Skills is offering summer institutes for select grade levels and subject areas. See details below.

- The following Social Studies summer institutes will be offered the week of June 18-22, 2012 at Lawton Chiles Middle School, 8190 NW 197 Street, Miami, Florida 33015:
 - 6th Grade World History
 - 7th Grade Civics
 - 8th Grade U.S. History
 - 11th Grade U.S. History
- The purpose of these institutes is to train teachers on new subject area requirements associated with the above mentioned courses.
- Schools are asked to only allow one teacher to apply per subject area.
- Each institute is limited to 30 participants.
- Interested teachers must fill out the attached application and submit it to Ms. Jackie Viana, Curriculum Support Specialist, Division of Social Sciences and Life Skills, on or before Friday, May 18, 2012.
- Teachers will be notified via email as to their acceptance during the week of May 21-25, 2012.
- Accepted teachers must agree to the following summer institute requirements:
 - Attend all 5 days of training during the week of June 18-22, 2012,
 - Set up trainings with school site staff during the 2012-2013 academic year to train same grade level/subject teachers using the materials provided during the summer institute, and
 - Provide evidence of the trainings to the Division of Social Sciences and Life Skills (sign in sheets and meeting agendas).
- Accepted participants will receive $100 stipend per day and 40 Master Plan Points if all program requirements are met.
- Selected teachers will be notified via email how to sign up for Master Plan Points through the District's PD Menu and Registration System.
- Please see the attached application for additional information.
- If you have questions or need additional information, please contact Ms. Jackie Viana via email, jviana@dadeschools.net, or via telephone (305) 995-2772.
