To provide schools with information and instructional resources about the 65th anniversary of the U.S. Supreme Court decision in Brown v. Board of Education, Topeka, Kansas.

- The Division of Academics, Department of Social Sciences has developed instructional resources to commemorate the 65th anniversary of the U.S. Supreme court decision in Brown v. Board of Education, Topeka, Kansas.
- On May 17, 1954, U.S. Supreme Court Justice Earl Warren delivered the unanimous ruling in the landmark civil rights case Brown v. Board of Education of Topeka, Kansas. State-sanctioned segregation of public schools was a violation of the 14th amendment and was therefore unconstitutional. This historic decision marked the end of the "separate but equal" precedent set by the Supreme Court nearly 60 years earlier in Plessy v. Ferguson and served as a catalyst for the expanding civil rights movement during the decade of the 1950s. (source: https://www.ourdocuments.gov/doc.php?flash=true&doc=87). May 17, 2019 marks the 65th anniversary of the Warren Court's decision.
