To announce the U.S. Constitution Day Student Essay Contest for students in grade 6-8.

- The law firm of Higer, Lichter and Givner is sponsoring a student essay contest on the United States Constitution for students in grades 6-8. The contest is being held in commemoration of Constitution Day, a federal observance.
 - Student participants will submit an essay that addresses the following prompt: "Please elaborate upon the Constitutional right that you treasure most, and explain why."
 - Participating schools will review and select ONE school winner who will represent the school in the contest.
 - Each participating school must submit its winning essay electronically via email (PDF format) to Ms. Michelle Casares at MCasares@hlqlawyers.com. The deadline for submission is September 5, 2012 at 5:00 p.m.
 - One grand prize winner will be selected and he or she will be presented with a certificate and an iPad 2 during the Constitution Day event that will take place at 5:30 p.m. on September 12, 2012 at HistoryMiami.
 - Complete contest rules and guidelines are attached.
 - If you have any questions or need additional information, please contact Ms. Katy Patao at Roar Media at katy@roarmedia.com.
