The Department of Social Sciences announces recent information from the Florida Department of Education regarding the release of student-level results of the Spring 2013 U.S. History End-of-Course (EOC) Assessment.

The Florida Department of Education will release student-level results of the Spring 2013 U.S. History End-of-Course (EOC) Assessment as shown below:

- RELEASE DATE: Friday, May 17
- RELEASE TIME: 6:00 AM ET
- HOW TO ACCESS U.S. HISTORY EOC ASSESSMENT STUDENT RESULTS:
 - o Accessible for district and school download via the SECURE PearsonAccess (PA) website (www.pearsonaccess.com/fl) with unique logins/passwords (school sites should have this login/password information).
 - o Spring 2013 U.S. History End-of-Course Assessment School Reports of Students (All grade levels are included on this report.)
 - o For specific instructions on how to access school-site data, please see briefing number 13937 published by the Division of Assessment, Research, and Data Analysis.
- It is the Florida Department of Education's goal to release student-level results for each EOC subject no later than two weeks after the last day of test administration for that subject. School, district, and state-level summary reports for all EOC assessments, as well as Individual Student Reports, will be received after student-level data have been reported for all subjects.
- Should you have questions or need additional information, please contact Robert C. Brazofsky, Executive Director, Department of Social Sciences, via email, rbrazofsky@dadeschools.net, or see the contact information below.
