The Division of Social Sciences and Life Skills, in cooperation with The University of Miami's School of Education, is offering a Holocaust Summer Institute from June 15-19, 2009 at the University of Miami.

- The Division of Social Sciences and Life Skills, in cooperation with the University of Miami's School of Education, is offering a five-day training for teachers, grades 6-12, who are interested in participating in a Summer Institute on Teaching the Holocaust.
 - The University of Miami Summer Institute aims to assist Miami-Dade County Public Schools' social studies and language arts teachers and media specialists, grades 6-12, in exploring the content, methodologies, and rationales for teaching the history of the Holocaust in the classroom. There are openings for 35 scholarships for M-DCPS participants by application only.
 - The Institute will take place at: University of Miami - Coral Gables, Florida
Exact Room and Building Location to be announced by May 1, 2009
Fee: Parking for the week is $25.00, payable the first day of the Institute
Registration: $50.00 non-refundable due on the first day of the Institute
Instructor: Dr Miriam Klein Kassenoff, Education Specialist, Division of Social Sciences and Life Skills; and Director of the University of Miami Summer Holocaust Teacher Institute
 - Teachers selected to participate in the Summer Institute will receive 3 graduate credits from the University of Miami's School of Education which can be utilized for re-certification. No MPP will be awarded.
 - Teachers interested in applying for the Institute can either go on-line to the Institute via the following link www.education.miami.edu/holocaust or by printing the attached information.
 - Please complete the registration process as soon as possible and fax to Ms. Alissa Stein. Applications are due by May 13, 2009.
