To announce upcoming professional development opportunities being offered by Miami Dade College (MDC) Center for Economic Education (CEE) for 2019-2020.

- The Division of Academics, Department of Social Sciences is pleased to announce the following professional development opportunities being offered by Miami Dade College (MDC) Center for Economic Education (CEE). Please see below for complete details.

- SOCIAL SCIENCES—International Trade + Port of Miami Tour Grades 6-12 ONLY
  - This interactive professional development experience is an introduction to globalization and international trade with a behind-the-scenes tour of the Port of Miami. Secondary social sciences teachers will be engaged in content area learning activities that include best practices to build strong international relationships and business partnerships with an emphasis on financial literacy and economics education. This event is offered in collaboration with Florida Atlantic University (FAU) Center for Economic Education.
  - Date & Time: October 9, 2019 – 8:30 a.m. - 3:30 p.m.
  - Location: MDC, Wolfson Campus – Room 8106 – 300 N.E. Second Avenue, Miami, FL 33132.
  - Audience: Teachers in grades 6-12.
  - Seating Limit: 30 spaces maximum.
  - Food: Breakfast and Lunch will be provided.
  - Parking: Will be provided and detailed instructions will be emailed to all confirmed participants prior to the workshop.
  - Teachers interested in attending this workshop should click on the following link to register: www.eventat.live/5944
  - Teachers who are accepted, will receive a confirmation from MDC CEE.
  - In addition, MDC CEE will provide the confirmed list of registered teachers to the Department of Social Sciences, who in turn will be manually registered within MyLearningPlan (MLP) in order to be eligible for Master Plan Point (MPP) credit. Once teachers have been manually registered, they will receive an email to confirm that the session appears in their “In-Progress” area of MLP.
  - Credit: 7 MPPs will be awarded to those who attend and successfully complete all PD requirements.
  - Additionaly, it should be noted that this is a closed registration process within MLP. The workshop will not be published in their catalogue. Only manually registered participants will be able to access the session area.

- SOCIAL SCIENCES—Financial Literacy Lessons for YOU! Secondary ONLY
  - Back by popular demand, this professional development will provide activity-based financial literacy lessons for middle and senior high school social sciences teachers. Participants will be engaged in content area learning activities designed to engage their students to learn history by analyzing secondary sources of information with an emphasis on financial literacy and economics education. The information and resources being presented were created by the Florida Council on Economic Education and the National Council for Economic Education.

- Date & Time: October 25, 2019 – 8:30 a.m. - 3:30 p.m.
- Location: MDC, Kendall Campus – Room R402-403 – 11011 S.W. 104th Street, Miami, FL 33176.
- Audience: Teachers in grades 6-12.
- Seating Limit: 60 spaces maximum.
- Food: Breakfast and Lunch will be provided.
- Parking: Will be provided and detailed instructions will be emailed to all confirmed participants prior to the workshop.
- Credit: 7 MPPs will be awarded to those who attend and successfully complete all PD requirements.

SOCIAL SCIENCES - Florida Grown Economics Grades 4-12 ONLY

- Back by popular demand, this professional development opportunity is being offered by Miami Dade College (MDC) CEE and the Federal Reserve Bank of Atlanta, Miami Branch.
- This workshop will identify immigrant entrepreneurs and their contributions to Florida’s economy as well as different industries in Florida. It will analyze the social/economic impact of several immigrant groups throughout Florida’s history.
- Additionally, the workshop will cover the history of Florida with a focus on immigration. This lesson is adaptable for different grade levels to teach about several economic concepts. The program will conclude with a Cultural walking tour through Little Havana with Dr. Paul George. Local historian associated with Miami-Dade College and HistoryMiami Museum.
- Date & Time: November 15, 2019 - 4:00 p.m. - 9:00 p.m.
- Location: MDC, Eduardo J. Padrón (formerly InterAmerican) Campus – Room 401 – 627 S.W. 27th Avenue, Miami, FL 33135.
- Audience: Teachers in grades 4-12.
- Seating Limit: 40 spaces maximum.
- Parking: Detailed instructions will be emailed to all confirmed participants prior to the workshop.
- Teachers interested in attending this workshop should click on the following link to register: www.eventat.live/5942
- Teachers who are accepted, will receive a confirmation from MDC CEE.
- In addition, MDC CEE will provide the confirmed list of registered teachers to the Department of Social Sciences, who in turn will be manually registered within MyLearningPlan (MLP) in order to be eligible for Master Plan Point (MPP) credit. Once teachers have been manually registered, they will receive an email to confirm that the session appears in their “In-Progress” area of MLP.
Department of Social Sciences, who in turn will be manually registered within MyLearningPlan (MLP) in order to be eligible for Master Plan Point (MPP) credit. Once teachers have been manually registered, they will receive an email to confirm that the session appears in their “In-Progress” area of MLP.

- Credit: 6 MPPs will be awarded to those who attend and successfully complete all PD requirements.
- Additionlly, it should be noted that this is a closed registration process within MLP. The workshop will not be published in their catalogue. Only manually registered participants will be able to access the session area.

For more information regarding any of the above workshops, please contact Ms. Ana C. Corrales, Director, Center for Economic Education, MDC, Eduardo J. Padrón Campus at acorrale@mdc.edu or call 305-237-6043

Contact: Mr. Robert C. Brazofsky, Executive Director (305-995-1982)

Department: Department of Social Sciences