To announce the Department of Social Sciences Women's History Month Essay Contest for Elementary School students.

- The purpose of this contest is to enhance elementary school students' writing skills while promoting an awareness of the 2015 Women's History Month theme, "Weaving the Stories of Women's Lives." The theme presents an opportunity to weave women's stories- individually and collectively- into the fabric of our nation's history.
  - 2015 Women's History prompt is as follows: Think about a woman from history or a woman in your life who you admire and serves as a role model for you. Write to convince your reader why this woman's story and positive influence serves as an exemplary person to include in a history textbook.
  - PRIZES:
    - 1st place – $50 Gift Card and Framed Certificate;
    - 2nd place – $30 Gift Card and Framed Certificate; and
    - 3rd place – $20 Gift Card and Framed Certificate.
  - Essay Contest Guidelines:
    - Elementary school students up to grade 5 are eligible to participate in this contest. Sixth grade students who are still housed in an elementary school and sixth grade students in a K-8 centers must enter the secondary school competition.
    - Essays must be typed, with a maximum length of 500 words (2 pages), double spaced on white paper, and stapled on the upper left hand corner.
    - The prompt must be typed on the cover sheet. The cover sheet must also include the student's name, grade level, email address, phone number (cell/home), school's name, principal's name, teacher's name and teacher's best phone number. Failure to follow these guidelines will result in disqualification.
    - All entries will be evaluated in their entirety with consideration being given to the following four elements: focus, organization, support and conventions.
    - All entries are due by 4:30 p.m. on or before Tuesday, March 31, 2015. Winners will be announced via email once the competition date has closed.
    - Submissions may be either brought in person to: The Department of Social Sciences, SBAB Annex, 1501 NE 2nd Avenue Suite 326 or sent via FAX: 305 995-1492.
