

14. Assigning Resources from Lesson Plans

This guide provides the steps for assigning resources to students directly from the lesson plans.

1. Click the Lesson Plans tab.

2. Click on the desired chapter to view McGraw-Hill Recommended Lesson Plans and any Teacher Customized Lesson Plans.

3. Within the lesson plan, the resources are viewed on the right side. To the bottom right of the resources click on Tools and Click Assign this Resource.

Lesson 1: The Growth of Trade

Expand All

The screenshot shows the lesson plan for 'Lesson 1: The Growth of Trade'. The 'Teach & Assess - Exploring the World' section is expanded. On the left, there is a 'GUIDING QUESTION' and 'MAIN IDEAS' section. On the right, there is a 'Lesson 1 Teach & Assess: Exploring the World Lecture Notes for Main Ideas' section. The 'Tools' button is circled in black.

GUIDING QUESTION

Why was the Age of Exploration a major turning point in history?

MAIN IDEAS

- Queen Isabella of Spain funded Christopher Columbus's voyage.
- Columbus explored the Caribbean Islands, or the West Indies. He made three more voyages to the Caribbean Islands, claiming the lands he found for Spain and starting settlements.
- Other explorers who also voyaged to the Americas were Amerigo Vespucci, Vasco Núñez de Balboa, and Ferdinand Magellan.
- The voyages led to the Columbian Exchange.
