

Getting to Know McGraw-Hill Social Studies Networks

Nine Weeks Challenge Outline

Each week teachers will be assigned a task that allows them to explore a specific function of the digital side of McGraw-Hill's social studies program Networks. Tasks will also include references to specific Training Guides that will help complete the task as well as access to technical support. By the end of the nine weeks, teachers will have experienced the most prominent features of Networks.

Week 1 - Task: Explore Resource Library and Mark Resources as Favorites

Training Guides:

3. Marking Resources as Favorites
4. Most Popular Resources

Week 2 - Task: Add Personal Resources to My Files

Training Guide:

5. My Files

Week 3 - Task: Adjust Reading Level Access for Students

Training Guide:

9. Adjusting Individual Student Profiles

Week 4 - Task: Explore Digital Lesson Plans and Customize

Training Guides:

13. Locating Lesson Plans
14. Adding Lesson Plans to Planner
15. Editing Lesson Plans

Week 5 - Task: Use Digital Lesson Presentation

Training Guide:

17. Lesson Presentation

Week 6 - Task: Assign Digital Work to Students

Training Guides:

11. Creating Digital Assignments

12. Viewing Student Digital Assignments

Week 7 - Task: Assign LearnSmart

Training Guides:

22. Assigning and Customizing LearnSmart

23. Accessing Reports in LearnSmart

Week 8 - Task: Locate and Modify an Online Assessment

Training Guide:

18. Locating and Modifying Online Assessments

Week 9 - Task: Assign and Monitor an Online Assessment

Training Guide:

21. Assigning and Monitoring Online Assessments